Tips & Tricks

For Attending Virtual Events

Dress for Success:

What to Wear

- Solid colors
- Jewel tones
- Nice jacket

What NOT to Wear

- Black or Gray
- Stripes
- Patterns
- T-shirts

Technical Questions

Do I need Zoom to participate in the virtual event?

- We recommend that you download Zoom Client for Meetings ahead of time:
<https://zoom.us/download>
- The web browser client will download automatically when you start or join your first Zoom meeting, but we recommend that you manually download it prior to the conference using the link above.
- Although you do not need to download the Zoom application to participate—you can run the meeting in your browser by clicking “join from your browser” at the bottom of the page—the viewing experience is better through the app.

Technical Questions

Where can I find more information on the Zoom platform?

- Visit the Zoom Support center for additional information:
<https://support.zoom.us/hc/en-us>

I am having trouble with streaming audio, I can't hear the speaker through my computer speakers, the streaming stopped... what do I do?

- If you are not able to hear any audio through your computer speakers, first check to make sure your speakers are not muted or turned off.
- The next step is to refresh your screen by pressing the F5 key on your keyboard or clicking the “refresh” button in your web browser.

Earning CEUs

How to secure your credits.

Working Toward a Certificate

Through national certification, you join thousands of committed peers who are focused on operating at the highest standards of ethical and professional practice in the delivery of park and recreation programs.

WRPA 2021 CONFERENCE
ILLUMINATING THE FUTURE

Certified Park and Recreation Professional (CPRP) Certification

Attaining the CPRP designation shows that you have met education and experience qualifications and illustrates your commitment to the profession as well as your knowledge and understanding of key concepts within parks and recreation.

Certified Park and Recreation Executive (CPRE) Certification

(CPRE) establishes a national standard for managerial, administrative and executive parks and recreation professionals. This mastery-level credential focuses on the practical knowledge and current real-world skills necessary in today's changing park and recreation environment.

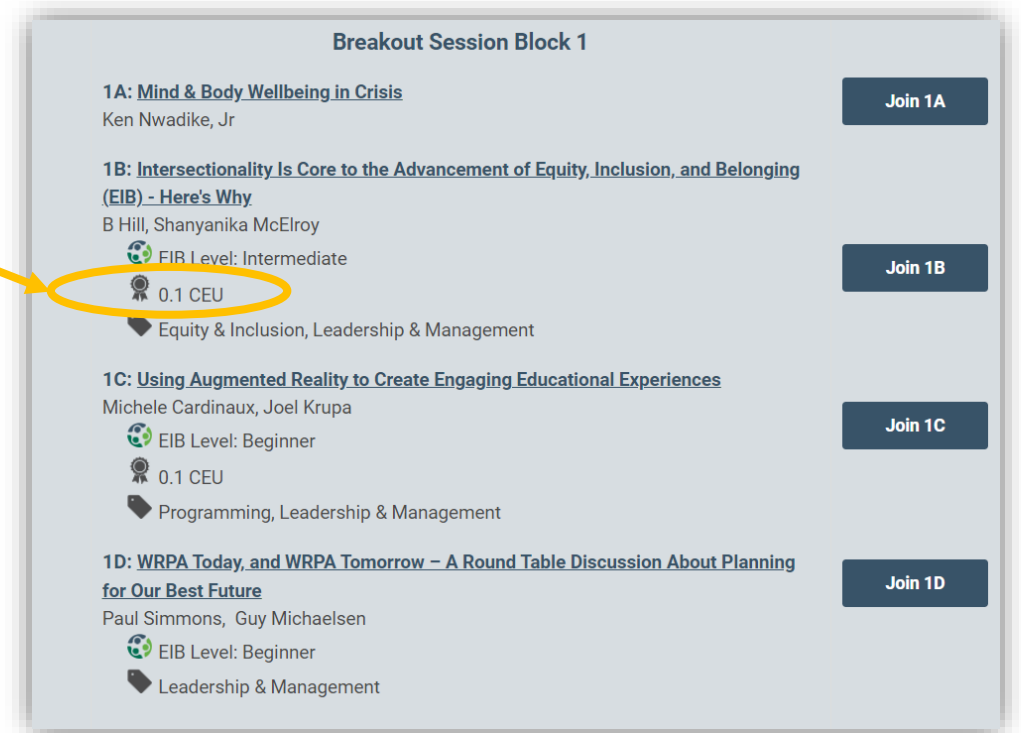

Credit Information

CEUs At Conference

- Almost all sessions at this year's conference have been approved for CEUs (continuing education units). You can see the CEU amount in the Attendee Portal.

CEU Attendance Verification

- Proof of attendance must come from the host of the course, a room host, or the instructor. WRPA will provide information about obtaining credit in your “thank you for attending email” and a downloadable certificate will be made available after the event.

WRPA 2021 CONFERENCE
ILLUMINATING THE FUTURE

Cancellation Policy

All attendees agreed to the following policy when registering for this event.

All cancellations must be submitted via email WRPA at wrpa@wrpatoday.org. Cancellations submitted on or before Friday, April 16, 2021 will receive a refund, less a $25 processing fee. No refunds will be given for cancellations received after Friday, April 16, 2021. Registrants who cancel after Friday, April 16, 2021 will be responsible for payment regardless of attendance. Substitute attendees will be permitted, and requests for substitutions must be submitted via email. After an invoice is past due, a late fee of $25 will be assessed.

Technical Failure Policy

All attendees agreed to the following policy when registering for this event.

It is the responsibility of the registrant to confirm system requirements and test their computers prior to the start of each virtual session. If a technical failure is the fault of the service provider and the session is not able to be broadcast as planned, WRPA reserves the right to reschedule the session. If an attendee experiences a technical failure on their end, WRPA is not responsible for refunding the participant or providing applicable CE hours.

Code of Conduct for All Participants

All attendees agreed to the following policy when registering for this event.

WRPA events are community events intended for education, networking, and collaboration. We value the participation of everyone and want all attendees to have an enjoyable and fulfilling experience. Accordingly, all attendees are expected to show respect and courtesy to other attendees throughout all events hosted in the WRPA space. To make clear what is expected, all attendees, speakers, exhibitors, organizers, and volunteers at any virtual event are required to conform to the following Code of Conduct. Organizers will enforce this code throughout the event. In registering for and/or participating in this event, you consent to comply with the following Code of Conduct.

Examples of encouraged behavior that contributes to a positive environment include:

- Using welcoming and inclusive language
- Being respectful of differing viewpoints and experiences
- Gracefully accepting constructive criticism
- Focusing on what is best for everyone at the event
- Showing empathy towards other participants
- Unacceptable behavior

We do not tolerate the following:

Spam (verbally or in chats), including saying or re-posting the same word/content repeatedly in order to disrupt the conversation

Harassment, bullying, and intimidation

Harassment and bullying are defined as:

- Negative comments about race/ethnicity, gender and gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, age, religion, physical appearance, citizenship, or other protected categories
- Intimidation or threats, including sharing images or text especially to threaten
- Unwelcome sexual attention, including sharing images or text especially to sexually harass
- Threatening or other endangerment of minors or any persons
- Any activity meant to convey or cultivate hostility
- Ad hominem insults or other attacks
- Encouraging the above behavior
